4. Course of the meeting and its conclusions
  - Danilo Lekovic and Marijana Blecic informed the participants on the course of the LIT3 project, final conference outcomes, and next steps in regard to promotion of project results, sustainability of FL concept and project products.
  - Dr Dusanka Popovic, from the BoE, informed present SWG members about the initiatives that were taken in this field from 2000 onwards, claiming that a lot of good practices were abandoned due to formal ending of various state and NGO projects. She expressed her willingness to help and praised the enthusiasm of the group.

- General agreement was that Family literacy concept will be further promoted so that it was included in other strategic plans to be developed by all the institutions. REF member, Mr. Hadzibegovic, emphasized the need for continuous and strategic efforts on behalf of all because most of the children and families who participated in LIT3 project were covered by various other initiatives and the results are visible.
  - The SWG went on to discuss the activities within timeframes – the final part of the document which was communicated among the members in the past months. The finalized version of the document was re-read towards the end of the meeting.
  - Each representative of institution agreed to given roles in enforcing the local strategy developed for the period of four years. Additional communication to be done with the representatives of the KRUG NGO Roma Coalition members who could not be present but may be very important when thinking about the domicile Roma population.
  - Further communication was agreed – since most of the SWG members meet occasionally through various other initiatives, some of the communication will be informal, while Pedagogical Center of Montenegro promised to be the key contact point when it comes to all activities.
